

3rd Annual International Hip Hop Activism Conference

November 4, 2017 9:30am to 6pm

Free and Open to the Public

Pitzer College 1050 N. Mills Ave Claremont, CA 91711

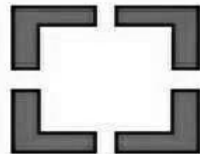

Room One: Benson Auditorium, BN - AUD

Room Two: Gold Student H & W Center, GCMPR

For more info or to present contact:

Anthony Nocella - 315-657-2911 or nocellat@yahoo.com

SPONSORED BY

Pitzer in Ontario youth
MENTORING ACTION NETWORK

CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

9:30am – Welcoming

- Torie Weiston-Serdan Founder and Executive Director, Youth Mentoring Action Network and Anthony J. Nocella II, National Co-Coordinator, Save the Kids and Assistant Professor, Fort Lewis College

10am – Session One

Workshop
Session Chair –

- Blue vs. Black Lives, Time to Kill that Noise: Critical Race Theory, Hip Hop and Public Sphere
Carlos A. Yanes, University of La Verne and Issac M. Carter, University of La Verne

11am – Session Two

Workshop
Session Chair –

- This Generation. Next generation. Organized as one
Cade Maldonado Pitzer College and Youth Mentoring Action Network and Jesus Sanchez Gente Organizada

12:00pm – Lunch

1:00pm – Session Three

Panel

Session Chair –

1. The Resurrection of the Black Student Athlete Activist: Capturing Lived Experiences
Gyasmine George-Williams, University of La Verne
2. Jazz to Hip Hop: A Musical Intergenerational Dialogue
Torie Weiston-Serdan, Youth Mentoring Action Network and Gayle Weiston-Serdan, Youth Mentoring Action Network
3. Hip Hop Activism in the Streets
Anthony J. Nocella II, Fort Lewis College and Save the Kids
4. Education, Hip-Hop, and Resistance: Empowering our communities by embracing our culture
Oscar Gutierrez, University of California, Los Angeles

2:30pm – Session Four

Workshop

Session Chair –

- Self-Care and Student Activism: Strategies for Success
Gyasmine George-Williams, University of La Verne

3:30pm – Session Five

Panel

Session Chair –

- Organizing for Black Students and Hip Hop Event on College Campuses from a Social Justice Feminist Lens
1. Why Organize for Black Students and Hip Hop
Kaidee Akullo, Fort Lewis College Black Student Union and Save the Kids
 2. The Politics and Repression of Organizing for Black Students and Hip Hop
Kalissa Stamp, Fort Lewis College Black Student Union and Save the Kids
 3. How to Organize for Black Students and Hip Hop
Mari Anderson, Fort Lewis College Black Student Union and Save the Kids
 4. How Not to Organize for Black Students and Hip Hop
Tatyona Truijlo, Fort Lewis College Black Student Union and Save the Kids

5:00pm to 6:00pm - Session Six

Workshop

Session Chair –

- Poetry Behind the Walls, Security Culture, and Prisoner Letter Writing
Anthony J. Nocella II Marissa Anderson, Tatyona Truijlo, Kalissa Stamp, Kaidee Akullo, Durango Prisoner Letter Writing

7:00pm – Hip Hop Cypher - Benson Auditorium, Pitzer College